

Oba and The People of G1

Mr. Haywood Fennel, Sr. has written an outstanding literary work based on African history and legends, as well as the energy of his own grandmother through her love and her story lineage. So, whether you are fluent and literate or not in French, the language of the colonizers used by brilliant African scholars who attended French schools in most of West Africa, you are still at an advantage in having this book open before you. You now have access to many rich details and nuances of African life and culture, which will help alleviate cultural shock here and in Africa, and hopefully will keep you hungry for more and more authentic knowledge!

—From the Preface by Dianne Zimbabwe

$19.95

African History

ISBN 9781733559904

9 781733 559904

90000

About the Author, Haywood Fennel, Sr.

Playwright, Producer, Director, BNNTV Program Host, Journalist. Poet Children's Book Author and US Army Veteran. He was born in New York City but spent his early years where he attended public school in Wilmington, North Carolina He graduated with a BA in Community Organizing in 2010 from the University of Massachusetts (Boston), College of Public and Community Service He is a gifted and respected writer who has written several books and plays that are History based and has been the recipient of several awards for his community service and artistic contributions. He is the Founder of the Oscar Micheaux Family Theater Program Company in Boston, MA. His hobby is to research the Harlem Renaissance Era and teach from his research.

Illustrations by Karen Penn

Oba and The People of G1

By: Haywood Fennell, Sr

Oba and The People of G1

By: Haywood Fennell, Sr